Thursday, June 15

09.30-10.00: Arrival and Coffee
10.00-10.10: Opening Remarks (Carmen, Friedhelm, Johannes)
10.10-12.10: Science Session I: “Where is the memory?”
  10.10-10.40: Bianca Silva, Gräff lab
  “A cortico-thalamic-hippocampal circuit for remote fear memory attenuation”
  10.40-11.10: Damien Husard, Sandi lab
  “The impact of physiological stress systems on memory formation and extinction”
  11.10-11.40: Hyeongdong Park, Blanke lab
  “Neural mechanisms of bodily self-consciousness in autobiographical memory and spatial navigation”
  11.40-12.10: Soumya Banerjee, McCabe lab
  “Miniature neurotransmission is essential for synaptic maintenance during aging”
12.15-13.45: Lunch
14.00-18.00: Social Activities
18.00-19.00: Keynote Lecture Bruno Lemaître, EPFL-SV-GHI
“How do high-ego personalities drive research in life sciences? And other societal issue with narcissism.”
19.00-20.00: Poster Session and Apero
20.00-22.00: Dinner
22.00 Onwards: Late night entertainment

Friday, June 16

08.30-09.30: Breakfast
09.30-10:45: Helene Fueger, EPFL Equal Opportunity office, and Carine Carvalho, UNIL Equal Opportunity office:
“Gender and diversity in (academic) organisations” (1st part)
10.45-11:15: Coffee Break
11:15-12:00 Helene Fueger, EPFL Equal Opportunity office, and Carine Carvalho, UNIL Equal Opportunity office:
“Gender and diversity in (academic) organisations” (2nd part)
12.10-13.40: Lunch
  13.40-14.10: Jean Baptiste Mignardot, Courtine lab
  “Neurotechnologies to reverse paralysis”
  14.10-14.40: Paola Solanes, Aebischer lab
  “Gene therapy in mouse models of human deafness”
  14.40-15.10: Johannes Burtscher, Lashuel lab
  “Rays of hope for degenerating neurons: Near infrared photobiomodulation (PBM) in Parkinson’s disease”
  15.10-15.40: Max Wessel, Hummel lab
  “Non-Invasive brain stimulation to enhance functional recovery after focal brain lesions”
16.00: Departure